Our Suppliers

Youen Jacob Senior sailed into Baltimore from Brittany in 1967 and introduced the shrimp fisheries to Baltimore. Today at The Lookout Restaurant his family continue to enjoy that long established relationship with local fishermen bringing the best of locally caught and simply prepared fish and shellfish to your table. In our 40 years in the restaurant business in Baltimore the Jacob Family are proud to have always used Irish and local suppliers and produce where possible. All our produce from fish to vegetables is prepared from scratch in house.
